Argument Essay: Choosing a Topic

What three topics are you considering? List two questions you would like to answer if researching each of the topics.

a) First topic ____________________________________________
   1.
   2.

b) Second topic ____________________________________________ 1.
   2.

c) Third topic ____________________________________________ 1.
   2.

After seriously thinking about your three topic choices, put a * next to the one you would like to research and be the focus of your persuasive essay.

Write the address of a business you will contact requesting information about your topic of choice.

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________